Re: Moncillo Djujich
Internal Security-Yugoslavia

On September 29, 1967, Moncillo Djujich furnished the following information to a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation:

On October 21, 1967, Djujich intends to travel to Hamilton, Canada, to attend a banquet being held in his honor by the Canadian Branch of the International Chetnik Veterans Organization of the Free World.

In connection with his trip, ^{Mameille} Djujich is exploring the possibility of setting up a meeting with the Yugoslavian Ambassador to Canada, Todor Curuvija. The purpose of this meeting would be to determine if Curuvija has any intentions to defect. If Curuvija advises Djujich that he does desire to defect, Djujich intends to determine how this can be accomplished.

Djujich has been acquainted with Curuvija since their boyhood days in Yugoslavia. Both Djujich and Curuvija were raised in Topolji, Yugoslavia, and their families are very close.

Approximately two months ago the mother-in-law of Djujich's cousin, Branko Djujich Gaby, Indiana, traveled to Topolji, Yugoslavia, for a visit. During the course of this visit Branko Djujich's mother-in-law met Mara Curuvija, the mother of Todor Curuvija.

Mara Curuvija advised Branko Djujich's mother-in-law that her son, Todor Curuvija, desired to speak with Moncillo Djujich. The reason why Todor Curuvija desires to speak with Moncillo Djujich was not furnished. Djujich was unable to recall the name of Branko Djujich's mother-in-law.

Based on the above, Djujich is of the opinion that

Re: Momcillo Djulich

Todor Caruvija desires to speak with him in order to discuss the possibility of Caruvija defecting. Djulich has heard in the past that Todor Caruvija does not have strong allegiance to the Communist regime of President Tito and would probably like to break all ties with President Tito.

Djulich intends to send a member of his organization to the Office of Todor Caruvija in Montreal, Canada, on a pretext. This individual will request an audience with Todor Caruvija to discuss the procedure of having a relative in Yugoslavia travel to Canada for a visit. During the course of the ensuing conversation, this individual will mention to Caruvija that Momcillo Djulich is in Canada and desires to speak with Caruvija. If Caruvija is agreeable to meet with Djulich, a place and time will be agreed upon. Djulich was unable to furnish additional details at this time.
